

Cosplay Chess Registration Form B

This form is for participants who would like to conduct the chess pieces as opposed to being a chess piece. This form will sign you up for Ikacon's 2010 Live Cosplay Chess event. Signing up for this event does NOT mean you will be a part of the event but rather means you will be selected by the discretion of the Cosplay Chess administrators based upon a first come first serve basis. Because Cosplay Chess is an event limited on time, there can only be so many participants. This should not, however discourage you from signing up for the event.

Participants must have a firm grasp of knowledge concerning chess. They must be able to meet with the event coordinators before the event in order to run through a practice match. Participants must also have a general knowledge of various characters from various animes and games. However, the event coordinators will work with participants in order to help them recognize their chess pieces so that we can have a smooth event. Below are the rules all participants of Cosplay Chess must abide by in order to qualify for the event.

1. Participants MUST be 16 years of age or older. (We will check IDs at the sign up.)
2. You MUST have a valid cosplay pertaining to some aspect of Japanese culture, preferably from an Anime.
3. Participants MUST HAVE a firm understanding of Chess, and be able to give us some evidence of that.
4. Everyone participating in Cosplay Chess Must show up 15 minutes before the event, and also must show up at a practice round earlier in the convention. If participants do not show up they forfeit their position in the Event.
5. Participants must abide by all Cosplay Chess rules, including those to be discussed at the convention concerning Physical Contact, Language, etc.
6. Participants must also follow, as always, the rules set forward by Ikacon itself.
7. Participants are required to have an Ikacon 2010 badge in order to participate in the event. WITHOUT this badge, participants will not be allowed into the event hall.

By following these rules, we hope to create an event that will run smoothly, and allow the participants, the audience, and the Event Coordinators to have a fun stress free time. Below is the sign up form. We require your Name, Age, Cell Phone Number, and Email address, as well as information concerning the costume you will be wearing to the event. Contact information WILL NOT be given away, and is for the sole purpose of the Event Coordinators to get in touch with participants to let them know Rules, Gathering Times, etc.
